Hi Jessica,

I am not sure of Kate's schedule tomorrow so I can't answer with a definite yes for her; I would be available to be on call tomorrow. I do know that for both of us we need to be back to the lab no later than 3pm b/c we both have children in daycare and we both do pick up for our children. Also, it would be helpful if you could provide Lab # associated with this case so in the event you do need us we can get our data. Please keep us informed if you do get a plea.

Thanks,
Nicole Medina

Hi Kate and Nicole,

I hope you are well. This summons for the [REDACTED] case was faxed over on February 16, 2012, but I wanted to email it to you as well, and check in with you about tomorrow's trial date. Are you available to be on call for this case tomorrow? There is a good chance that it will plea, but I wanted to check with you to make sure that the Commonwealth can answer ready for trial.

Thank you so much,
Jessica
